- 8/4/1990 Sklba memorandum regarding Beck. Mentions that Sklba met with a male survivor on 5/14/88 regarding allegations of misconduct involving Beck that occurred in 1982 at St. James in Mequon. Sklba recommends immediate referral to law enforcement and asked if the survivor felt any need for personal counseling, both of which are refused. Sklba then met with Beck on 5/20/88 to inform Beck that he was obligated to speak with civil authorities about the 1982 incident and to insist that Beck seek counseling. At that time, Beck informed Sklba that he had been receiving ongoing counseling as a result of an earlier incident in 1971 in Sheboygan, which had not been known to Sklba prior to 5/20/88. Beck's candor and the circumstances led Sklba to conclude that there did not seem to be any immediate danger to innocent parties, and therefore he did not judge it necessary to remove Beck from St. Catherine's at that time or invoke administrative leave. Once Sklba determined that the survivor was 18, he contacted the Ozaukee County Social Services and was promised someone would be sent for an interview. Sklba also called Beck and indicated he had informed Social Services and that Beck should obtain the services of a personal lawyer. Sklba then met with Beck on 5/25/88 to outline the actions required and to be assured that Beck was following through with Sklba's requests. On 5/27/88, Sklba talked to the survivor's brother about the actions being taken, and the brother was satisfied that the survivor's wishes were being respected. On 7/7/88, Sklba talked to Ozaukee County investigator who advised that investigation was complete and no further action was anticipated. On 8/17/88, Sklba was informed of a report that Beck made an obscene phone call to a female on 7/13/88. Given the circumstantial evidence of the allegation, Sklba consulted with Beck's doctor, who offered the professional opinion that such a call was highly unlikely. Sklba notes that throughout this time period, he discussed various non-parochial future ministry for Beck and ultimately asked Beck to resign from the pastorate of St. Catherine's in Granville effective December 31, 1988, for a variety of reasons, including personal health and stress as well as allegations which had surfaced and compromised his ministry.
