Historical Note

On February 12, 1888 the vicar-general, Msgr. Augustine Zeininger, called a meeting at St. Joseph Convent for all German Catholics in the area to discuss forming a new parish. Several blocks of land across the street from the convent were purchased for the new parish and Rev. Louis Barth was chosen to be the first pastor. At this time St. Lawrence was on the far western edge of Milwaukee and the only thing to the west of the parish was celery fields. A small building was purchased for the first combination church/school building until a larger church could be constructed. The parish formed quickly, and by October 21, 1888 the parish was ready to be dedicated.

The parish continued to grow and several additional lots were purchased for additions to the buildings. By 1901 the parish was overcrowded and Rev. Barth requested that a new parish be built on the South Side. St. Lawrence helped to found the new Holy Ghost parish. In October of 1904 a large fire broke out and completely destroyed the church building. The cause of the fire was never determined. To replace the building a much larger gothic church was built and dedicated in August of 1906; a ceremony that lasted 6 hours. The new church sat of 1,000 people and had three galleries for the school children and choir. Throughout the early to mid-20th century the social life at St. Lawrence remained vibrant. Parishioners were involved with the St. Vincent de Paul Society, boy scouts, boy's altar society (in which they had as many as 90 servers), Young Ladies Sodality, May Crownings, Perpetual Help Devotions, Catholic Youth Organization, Bingo, Forth Hour Devotions, Ushers Society, Christian Mother's Society, and the Holy Name Society. Bingo consistently remained one of the top fund-raising activities of the parish.

After Vatican II, St. Lawrence's pastor, Rev. Hugh Wish, continued to say Mass in the traditional way. This put him at odds with some of his parishioners and some of the sisters of the parish, who eventually left. In 1977 he resigned to help organize the St. Pius V Roman Catholics, Inc.

In 1895 the School Sisters of St. Francis came to teach in the school and remained for several decades. The relationship between the Sisters and St. Lawrence was very close. When the sisters' chapel was damaged by a fire they used the St. Lawrence church, and likewise after St. Lawrence's fire the parishioners used the sisters' chapel. During the 1920s and 1930s the sisters taught kindergarten through commercial school. The commercial courses consisted of a 1 or 2 year business school following the completion of 8th grade. Students were taught shorthand, typing, and business language. In 1972 the Superintendent of Catholic schools called together 10 south side schools and questioned whether they could all continue to exist, and the St. Lawrence parishioners formed the St. Lawrence Parent and Booster club to boost parent involvement and school fund raising. In the fall of 1998 St. Lawrence and St. Matthew merged their schools

During the late 20th century the demographics of the neighborhood continued to shift away from being predominantly German and Polish American to predominantly Hispanic. By the end of the 1990s St. Lawrence was located in one of the poorest zip codes in the city of Milwaukee. St. Matthew and St. Lawrence merged in 1999 to form St. Rafael the Archangel parish.

Scope and Content a brief description of the types of materials in the collection.

This collection contains the records from St. Lawrence parish in Milwaukee, WI. Much of the historical material was compiled for the parish's 100th anniversary celebration in 1988. Of particular interest are photographs documenting the 100th anniversary celebration, the burning of the parish's mortgage, first communions, graduations and photographs of priests who served or were priest sons of the parish. Also included are records from various parish societies, such as the Christian Mother's Society, the Usher's Society, and the St. Vincent de Paul Society. In addition there is information documenting the merger process between St. Lawrence and St. Matthew parishes.
