

High School Theology Curriculum Catholic Social Responsibility Key Challenges Correlation

RACIAL CHALLENGES

Students in Catholic High Schools in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will

...have a working knowledge of church teaching on the human person, sin/grace, and the reign of God/salvation.

...have a reflective awareness of how other Christian churches and non-Christian religions differ from the Catholic Church.

...have an enduring understanding of concepts related to Catholic teaching regarding the inherent dignity of the human person, created in the image and likeness of God.

...have a working knowledge of the role of signs, symbols, and rituals in natural human experience.

...have an enduring understanding of the Bible as God's gradual self-revelation and the unfolding of God's plan of salvation.

...have a working knowledge of the traditional guidelines for the Christian moral life.

CULTURAL CHALLENGES

Students in Catholic High Schools in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will

...have a working knowledge of the Church as a community of believers.

...have a reflective awareness of how other Christian churches and non-Christian religions differ from the Catholic Church.

...have a working knowledge of the role of signs, symbols, and rituals in natural human experience.

... have an enduring understanding of a “theology” of Church history that flows from salvation history, a history marked by change, continuity, and development.

...have a reflective awareness of the rich spiritual, cultural, and intellectual heritage of the Catholic Church.

...have an enduring understanding of the Bible as God’s gradual self-revelation and the unfolding of God’s plan of salvation.

...have a working knowledge of church teaching on the human person, sin/grace, and the reign of God/salvation.

...have a working knowledge of the traditional guidelines for the Christian moral life.

POLITICAL CHALLENGES

Students in Catholic High Schools in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will

...have a working knowledge of the social dimension of Christian living and understand basic principles of Catholic Social Teaching.

...have a working knowledge of the challenge posed by the intellectual, political, and social changes encountered by the Church.

...have a working knowledge of church teaching on the human person, sin/grace, and the reign of God/salvation.

...have a working knowledge of the traditional guidelines for the Christian moral life.

ECONOMIC CHALLENGES

Students in Catholic High Schools in the Archdiocese of Milwaukee will

...have a working knowledge of the social dimension of Christian living and understand basic principles of Catholic Social Teaching.

...have a working knowledge of the challenge posed by the intellectual, political, and social changes encountered by the Church.

...have a working knowledge of church teaching on the human person, sin/grace, and the reign of God/salvation.

...have a working knowledge of the traditional guidelines for the Christian moral life.